

Unlocking the Facts

FIND OUT MORE!

Knowing your way around The World Almanac is important if you want to find information quickly. There are four guides you can use to find information.

- The Quick Thumb Index on the back cover is most useful when you are looking for a large section, such as Sports. Use this index by moving your thumb from the topic on the back cover to its matching black-edged pages and open the book.
- The Contents on page 3 of the almanac lets you know what general topics are covered in the almanac (in the order they appear). It is most useful when you are looking for general information or want to browse a certain topic.
- The Quick Reference Index on the last page (1008) has many more specific topics—such as Academy Awards or Heads of State—arranged in alphabetical order.
- The General Index starting on page 979 is the most detailed of all, with 29 pages of topics and subtopics covered in the almanac. It is most useful for finding specific information, such as the languages spoken in Switzerland.

DID YOU KNOW?

The average U.S. movie ticket price increased from $4.23 in 1990 to $7.96 in 2012.

CHECK IT OUT

Where would you look for the following information?

First check the Quick Reference Index. If you don't find what you're looking for, go to the General Index. When you've found the answer to each question, write the page number and topic that lead to the answer and the index you used. If the information is not found in the General Index under the first topic you check, then you'll need to look for related topics or subtopics. Sometimes you may have to look in several different places in the index to find what you need.

--	------	-------	-------

- 1 How much money does the U.S. make from tourism? _____
- 2 Where was actress Jennifer Lawrence born? _____
- 3 In 1770, on the eve of the American Revolution, which colony had the largest population? _____
- 4 What is the highest mountain peak in Africa? _____
- 5 What was the most popular color for compact cars and sports cars sold in the 2012 model year? _____

Armchair Traveling

DID YOU KNOW?

In 2011, South America welcomed close to two million visitors from the United States.

FIND OUT MORE!

Using the map on pages 466-67, plan a five-stop tour of South America, starting in Buenos Aires. Do you want to spend most of your time in major cities or in the countryside, or divide your time about equally between the two? How many countries do you want to visit? The Nations of the World section of the almanac will help you make your travel decisions.

Number and label the stops you expect to make on the map of South America below. The first stop, Buenos Aires, is done as an example. You can visit popular tourist destinations, the seashore, the mountains, or any place that captures your imagination.

DID YOU KNOW?

Most nations' flags are rectangular, but Nepal's flag has an untraditional shape: the red flag with white symbols and a blue border appears to be two triangles, one above the other. Switzerland and Vatican City have square flags.

There are common elements in many flags. Stars are often used as symbols, as are stripes, crosses, and the color red.

MAKE CONNECTIONS

On the back of this sheet, design a flag for your family. The symbols you choose could be of special interests, symbols of your state or town, or something representing your parents' ethnic backgrounds. Explain the meanings of the symbols you chose. Have fun!

Picking a President

DID YOU KNOW?

Only three presidents in U.S. history lost the popular vote but captured a majority of the Electoral College votes to win the election. They were Rutherford B. Hayes in 1876, Benjamin Harrison in 1888, and George W. Bush in 2000. In the 1824 election, Andrew Jackson won the popular vote, but no candidate had an Electoral College majority; the House of Representatives chose John Quincy Adams as the president.
